Lack of advertising... beneficial to some!

When Mark Twain was a young man, he was editor and publisher of a growing newspaper in a small Missouri town. One day he received a letter from one of his subscribers. The subscriber said that he had found a spider in that morning's edition of his paper. He wanted to know if this was an omen of good luck, or of bad luck. Mark Twain, a hustling space salesman as well as an editor, wrote to his customer:

Dear Sir:

Finding the spider in your newspaper yesterday morning was neither good luck or bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which of the town's merchants is not advertising. He will then go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward.

Advertising should be stopped —

When you expect to go out of business.

When there is nothing about your business that people ought to know.

When you don't want new customers.

When people never become dissatisfied with one firm and go to another.

When the public stops being born, stops dying, stops forgetting.

In other words when a firm is coasting it's generally going down hill.
